

Expression of Interest – Voluntary Board Positions

Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre (AWRCC) Trust Fund Inc.

The AWRCC Trust Fund Board is inviting applications to fill 3 board vacancies.

The purpose of the AWRCC Trust Fund is to encourage and support our local community to raise funds for the AWRCC so it can continue to provide excellence in cancer care services. The long term vision of our organisation is that every cancer patient in our region can receive their treatment locally.

The AWRCC Trust Fund raise funds to support equipment purchases, staff training and development, cancer research and operation of the Wellness Centre.

We raise funds by:

- Actively promoting and supporting community fundraising activities
- Establishing "Corporate Friend" partnerships with local businesses
- Promoting the uptake of our "Workplace Giving" salary deduction program
- Delivering signature fundraising events, including "Sunshine Week" Sunshine Walk" and "A Night in White".
- Funeral and general donations

AWRCC Trust Fund staff are responsible for the delivery of Trust Fund programs. Board members provide governance, strategic advice and help to promote the Trust Fund in our local community.

Applicants are invited to submit a covering letter with a CV, detailing relevant:

- Skills,
- Experience
- Competencies, and
- Strategic relationships

The Board meets every two months. For further information on the AWRCC Trust Fund, visit: www.awcancertrust.org.au or call Trust Fund Manager, Kristy McMahon on 6064 1538.

Expressions of interest may be submitted by:

Email: info@awcancertrust.org.au

Post: Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund
PO Box 326
Albury, NSW, 2640

Deadline for applications: Wednesday 19th June 2019.