CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

Michelle Hensel
Chairperson,
Albury Wodonga
Regional Cancer
Centre Trust Fund

“With a tremendous amount of community support, the Trust Fund continued to go from strength to strength in the 2018-2019 financial year.”

At our strategic planning day in February, the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund set a “bhag” (big hairy audacious goal) that one day, no one in our community will have to travel outside the region for their cancer treatment.

This is certainly a bold vision given that there are so many types of cancer, some of which require very specialised care that has only ever been available in capital cities. But looking back over the history of the Trust, and what has been able to be achieved in the field of cancer care in our region, it gives us hope that this may one day be possible. That, coupled with the belief that it's what our community deserves.

With a tremendous amount of community support, the Trust Fund continued to go from strength to strength in the 2018-2019 financial year. We raised more than $809,000; an increase of just over $93,000 on the previous 12 months. As well as our extremely generous corporate sponsors who continue to support the Trust year after year, we were also helped greatly by a number of passionate groups and individuals who held incredibly successful fundraising events. Some outstanding examples of these were the Rutherglen Cats' Cancer Awareness Round ($16,000), Brad and Kerryn Hayden's Sara Storer concert ($15,000), Bev Grunow's dance lessons ($10,000) and Dulcie Stiff and Mary Cardwell's history book ($10,000).

As a result, we were able to invest heavily in cancer research, new equipment and the Wellness Centre. We were also able to lay the foundations for significant investment in education and training, and to start building funds to purchase life-saving medical equipment so advanced, that it hasn't even been invented yet.

None of this would be possible without the many clubs, community groups, schools and local businesses who got behind us and worked tirelessly to provide funding and support. Importantly, the community as a whole is recognising our work and is willing to support our cause. There are many people and organisations to thank, including:

- Albury Wodonga Health;
- Border Medical Oncology;
- Members of the Trust board, who always give of their time generously without seeking recognition;
 - Anne-Marie Humphries for all her work as the Trust Fund secretary;
 - Anthony Liston and John Mollison for their work in managing Trust finances;
- The Bendigo Bank for its ongoing support;
- BDS Huon for the provision of accounting software; and,
- Our wonderful, hard-working staff members.

I also thank my predecessor Grant Luff, who stepped down in April following six years with the board. Grant was one of six founding members, and served as chairman from 2015 to 2018. His contribution to the Trust during that time helped make it the wonderful organisation it is today.

We look forward to continuing to work with the community in the coming financial year. In collaboration with our cancer centre partners, some exciting plans have already started to be laid and we are extremely eager to see them become reality.

ABOUT US

The Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund was established by the Albury Wodonga Cancer Foundation as the official fundraising arm of the cancer centre.

A high level local board from business, industry and government oversees the Trust Fund. The board is responsible for the good governance of the Trust Fund which is also supported by a manager, media and communications coordinator, administration officer, and a team of dedicated volunteers who sit on a fundraising committee.

With tax deductibility and gift recipient status, the board ensures that donations from individuals and businesses in the community are directed solely to support cancer services in the Albury-Wodonga region.

OUR VOLUNTEERS

We have a wonderful group of volunteers who sit on our Fundraising Committee and provide invaluable support to our Manager in organising our major fundraising events.

As part of our 2018 Sunshine Week Family Fun Day, our committee members gave up countless hours to assist with ideas, promotion, sourcing raffle prizes, ticket sales and activities, as well as setting up and packing down.

Similarly, their input was also imperative to the success of our second A Night In White dinner party.

In 2019, the committee was busy preparing for the Sunshine Walk, which was planned for Sunday, November 24.

Without our volunteers, these events, which are vital in raising money and awareness for our cause, would not be able to happen.

Our sincere thanks go to committee members:

OUR COMMUNITY ADVOCATES

In late 2018, the Trust Fund was successful in securing a $50,000 grant from the Collier Charitable Fund to roll out the “Cancer Pals” volunteer community advocate program.

As the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre services a large geographical area, this program is aimed at proactively engaging with the communities located within our rural and remote towns.

The grant enabled us to create a part-time administration position to support the implementation of the Cancer Pals program and become a key contact point for community advocates.

Sharon Bohun commenced in the role in January 2019.

In the 2018-2019 financial year, advocates had been appointed in Corryong, Henty, Holbrook, Talgarro and Mt Beauty. Plans were being made to host a community information session in September 2019 with the view of appointing others in Howlong, Jindera, Thurgoona and Myrtleford.

These advocates are vital in spreading the word about the work of the Trust Fund in our outlying communities. The role of the advocate is to promote fundraising events, identify prominent local business who may have the capacity to donate to our cause, and to attend fundraising events periodically as an honoured guest.

“My wife was treated at the centre, and this is just something I can do to give back. Every little bit helps.”

OUR MAJOR EVENTS

SUNSHINE WEEK 2018

Our major fundraising campaign, Sunshine Week, was held for a third consecutive year from September 15 to 22, 2018.

This year we were privileged to have the backing of former Deputy Prime Minister, Tim Fischer, who campaigned the media and wider community to get involved with Sunshine Week, and also spoke at our Family Fun Day.

The campaign raised more than $37,000 and was supported by schools, workplaces, individuals and community groups who hosted 40 fundraising events throughout the region.

The Trust Fund also held a Family Fun Day at the Kinross Woolshed, which included fire-works, sack races and a performance by popular local duo, Eliza and Zac Spalding. A second sold-out wine tour to the Rutherglen region was also held.

Special thanks to McDonalds Wodonga Home-maker Centre and Dysons Group for their sponsorship of these events.

A NIGHT IN WHITE

A Night in White was held by the Trust Fund for a second year on November 24, 2018, raising $13,500 and more than double the previous year.

The night is inspired by the world-famous event Diner en Blanc, where all guests are dressed in white for an al fresco dinner party at a mystery location. It also adopted Diner en Blanc tradition of BYO food and cutlery, or guests were given the option of pre-ordering a gourmet picnic hamper.

About 150 guests met in QEII Square, Albury and boarded buses before the secret location was revealed as the Albury Racing Club. The night included a silent auction and entertainment by popular local duo, Toucan Rock.

Special thanks to Ray White Albury for their sponsorship of this event.

A third Night in White was being planned for February 2020, at a new secret location.

KEY PROJECTS

WELLNESS CENTRE

The Wellness Centre continued to expand its programs and services thanks to ongoing support from the Trust Fund. This year the Trust invested $155,800 into the Wellness Centre.

Among the new initiatives was the appointment of a part-time psychologist to provide a counselling service free of charge to cancer patients and their carers. In its first 12 months, this service provided 377 counselling sessions to 130 patients and carers.

A new evidence-based mindfulness program was also introduced and offered twice a year to patients and carers.

Thurgoona's Pat Meehan completed the eight-week course which she said helped her to become a "much calmer" person in the face of cancer.

"You can get very fixated on the illness and the bad things that happen, so this was good in helping you learn how to focus on other things," she said.

Other services available at the Wellness Centre included oncology massage, an art and relaxation group, cancer support groups and the Brave Hearts Wig Library.

CANCER RESEARCH

A new part-time research nurse position was created at the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre thanks to funds raised through the Great Murray River Postie Bike Adventure.

Organised by the Horizon Committee, the postie bike adventure saw about 50 riders unleash their Honda CT110s on the Alpine region over three days in February 2019.

A condition of entry was that all riders raise at least $1000 in donations or sponsorship, with the total coming to a staggering $65,000.

In consultation with the Horizon Committee, the money was passed onto the Border Medical Oncology Research Unit to create a new clinical trials nurse position dedicated to prostate cancer.

The funding came just as the research unit announced that it had been able to secure two new prostate cancer studies which had the potential to open trials up to hundreds of new patients.

The Trust also continued to invest in ovarian cancer research thanks to funds raised through the Border Ovarian Cancer Awareness Group.

The Trust Fund was looking to increase its investment in cancer research even further in the 2019-2020 financial year.

KEY PROJECTS

NEW EQUIPMENT

The Trust Fund invested $65,700 in new equipment and small projects this financial year.

One of the biggest commitments was $20,000 provided to the Albury Wodonga Cancer Foundation to develop the cBAG. The blue drawstring bag, filled with comfort items and useful resources, was to be distributed to every person newly diagnosed with cancer in our region. About 1500 of the bags were expected to be distributed free of charge within the first year, and were designed to be like a “community hug” for anyone starting their cancer journey.

Urgent funding of $18,400 was also provided to the Border Medical Oncology Research Unit for a new ultra-low medical freezer to store blood and serum samples for clinical trials. The unit's previous freezer was 12 years old and became unable to maintain the required temperature.

“The ultra-low freezer keeps blood and serum samples at minus 80 degrees until they are shipped world-wide for testing and further research,” Research Team Manager, Jacqui McBurnie said.

“Without it we wouldn't be able to participate in the clinical trials that we do.”

Other projects included:

- Almost $17,000 was invested in a new bioimpedance spectroscopy to enable the early detection of lymphoedema; and,
- Funding of $14,100 provided by the Albury Wodonga Prostate Cancer Support Group was used to purchase a new high-tech scanner used to check bladder function following prostate cancer treatment.

NURSE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Trust Fund launched a new nurse scholarship program to help strengthen the pool of specially trained staff at the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre.

Scholarships of up to $10,000 per year were offered to nursing staff wishing to complete post graduate degrees in oncology, and therefore enhance the treatment and care offered to our patients and their families.

Two successful applicants were approved, allowing cancer care coordinator and research nurse Nicole Webb to undertake a Master of Cancer Science, and clinical nurse specialist Tamara Quigley to complete a Masters in Nursing Practice.

This program was later funded by the Berringa Community Morning Tea, held at Talgarno in May 2019, which raised more than $26,000.

The event was held for a third consecutive year at Jim and Julie de Hennin's property and was attended by about 450 people.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Albury Wodonga Cancer Centre Trust Fund Inc

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of Albury Wodonga Cancer Centre Trust Fund Inc (the Trust Fund), which comprises the balance sheet as at 30 June 2019, the income and expenditure statement and a summary of significant accounting policies, and the statement by the Members of the Board of Management.

In our opinion, except for the effects, if any, on the financial statements of the matter referred to in the qualification paragraph, the accompanying financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust Fund as at 30 June 2019 and of its financial performance the year then ended in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1 to the financial report, the Associations Incorporation Act and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

It is not practicable for Albury Wodonga Cancer Centre Trust Fund Inc to establish internal controls over all sources of income raising activities prior to receipt of these funds by the organisation. Accordingly, it is not possible for my audit examination to include procedures that extend beyond the amounts of such income recorded in the accounting records of the Trust Fund.

Emphasis of Matter - Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the Trust Fund's financial reporting responsibilities under the Associations Incorporation Act and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Other Information

The Board of Management are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information contained in the Annual Report for the year ended 30 June 2019, but does not include the financial report and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Management for the Financial Report

The Board of Management are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report and has determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the financial reporting responsibilities under the Associations Incorporation Act and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, management is responsible for assessing the Trust Fund's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intend to liquidate the Trust Fund or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Management are responsible for overseeing the Trust Fund's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Managements' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Trust Fund's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Trust Fund to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
