CHAIR'S REPORT

Michelle Hensel
Chair,
Albury Wodonga
Regional Cancer
Centre Trust Fund

“ This financial year, every donation made to the Trust, big and small, helped us to achieve a record investment across all four of our key priority areas. ”

Despite challenges faced by our region this financial year, the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund continued to build on its fundraising efforts and investment in local cancer services.

Thanks to the incredible generosity of our community, we were able to raise a record $1.3 million in 2019-2020.

Our inaugural Sunshine Walk held on Sunday, November 24 raised more than $220,000. There were many teams and individuals involved in making this event such an incredible success. Some of these included Ray White Albury who raised $35,000, Team Sampson $27,690 and Hearts of Howlong $15,400.

There were also many groups and individuals who held their own successful fundraising activities throughout the year. Some outstanding examples of these included the High Country Charity Ride ($20,000), Lake Hume Cycle Challenge ($20,000), Rutherglen Cats Football Netball Club ($16,000) and Holbrook District Fundraisers ($12,937).

As in previous years, we owe a great deal of thanks to our corporate sponsors. Many of these have supported the Trust from the very start, and make significant contributions to support local cancer services year after year.

In 2019-2020, every donation made to the Trust, big and small, helped us to achieve a record investment across all four of our key priority areas.

This included a $339,000 investment in equipment, up from $65,000 in the previous financial year. We were incredibly proud to provide a $337,000 grant to enable Albury Wodonga Health to offer reconstructive surgery to breast cancer patients at Albury Hospital.

We increased our spending in the Wellness Centre by $93,000, to $244,000, allowing many more cancer patients and their families to access the psychological and emotional support they need.

Our strong financial position also allowed us to provide vital support to cancer research ($105,000), and staff education and training ($71,000) at the cancer centre. For both of these areas, we committed to investing a further $100,000 per year, over the next two years.

All of this helps our goal of having more people receive their cancer care close to home and support networks. One day, we hope that no one in our community has to travel outside the region for their cancer treatment.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank members of the Trust board, our Cancer Pals and Fundraising Committee volunteers, for giving their time generously and without seeking recognition. Thanks also to our staff for their dedication and commitment.

While the COVID-19 pandemic continued to create challenges for the Trust, our community is finding amazing, creative ways to continue supporting the Trust.

We thank our amazing communities for their continued support, and look forward to the great things we will be able to achieve together in the coming 12 months.

ABOUT US

The Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund was established by the Albury Wodonga Cancer Foundation as the official fundraising arm of the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre.

A high level local board from business, industry and government oversees the Trust Fund. The board is responsible for the good governance of the Trust Fund, which is also supported by a manager, media and communications coordinator, administration officer, and a team of dedicated volunteers who sit on a fundraising committee and represent the Trust as Cancer Pals in our local communities.

With tax deductibility and gift recipient status, the board ensures that donations from individuals and businesses in the community are used solely to support cancer services in the Albury-Wodonga region.

RICHARD ROXBURGH

Albury-born and raised actor, Richard Roxburgh, encouraged people to continue supporting the Trust Fund during the COVID-19 pandemic.

OUR VOLUNTEERS

We have a wonderful group of volunteers on our Fundraising Committee who provide invaluable support to our Manager in organising fund-raising events.

As part of our 2019 Sunshine Week, our committee members gave up countless hours to assist with ideas, promotion, sourcing raffle prizes and selling tickets.

Their input contributed to the success of our inaugural Sunshine Walk and McDonald's Family Fun Day, held at Noreuil Park, Albury on November 24, which raised more than $220,000.

As part of that event, the fundraising committee as well as other volunteers assisted with setting up, selling of tickets and merchandise, on-course support, photography and packing down.

Without our volunteers, this event, which was vital for raising money and awareness for our cause, would not have been possible.

In 2020, the committee was assisting with promotion of the Sunshine Walk planned for November 22, which as a result of COVID-19, was moved to a new virtual format.

OUR COMMUNITY ADVOCATES

From Jindera to Mt Beauty, and Myrtleford to Henty, the Trust Fund recruited outstanding community advocates based in towns throughout the region.

The Cancer Pals program officially launched at the cancer centre in September, with 13 volunteer community advocates signing up to help support the work of the Trust Fund in their hometowns.

As the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre services a large geographical area, our Cancer Pals is crucial in proactively engaging with the communities located within our rural and remote towns.

Trust Fund Manager, Kristy McMahon, said all Cancer Pals were passionate about improving cancer services for their local community.

"As the cancer centre services a regional area of almost 300,000 people, our Cancer Pals are vital in serving as a link between us and their communities.

"We were really excited to have them come on-board and thank them for doing a wonderful job in representing the Trust in their hometowns."

MAJOR FUNDRAISERS

SUNSHINE WALK 2019

The Trust Fund's major fundraising campaign, Sunshine Week, was held for a fourth consecutive year from November 18 to 24.

As part of that campaign, we launched the inaugural Sunshine Walk featuring 5km and 20km walks taking in some of Albury-Wodonga's most popular attractions.

The walk was a huge success, with some 1000 participants helping to raise more than $220,000.

Event Ambassadors were Wangaratta teen, Hayden Sampson, who had recently completed treatment for testicular cancer, and Albury's Cristy Jacka with her daughter, Lucy, who lost their husband and father, Karl, to cancer.

Challenge Cups were awarded to Team Sampson, Victory Lutheran College, Hearts of Howlong and Ray White Albury.

The walk was proudly sponsored by Healthfocus Physiotherapy, 1494 2AY radio, Dysons, Dutch Media, Signarama, Beyond Bank and Bowen's Entertainment.

It was followed by the McDonald's Family Fun Day at the start and finish line, at Noreuil Park, Albury.

Other Sunshine Week activities held in the community included morning teas, an art and craft stall and a gold coin donation drive led by Thurgoona Public School student, Taylor Furze.

Plans were in place to hold a second Sunshine Walk in November 2020, this time as an online event as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

TIM FISCHER, AC, DONATIONS

The Trust Fund was deeply saddened by the passing of former Deputy Prime Minister, the Hon Tim Fischer AC, on August 22, 2019.

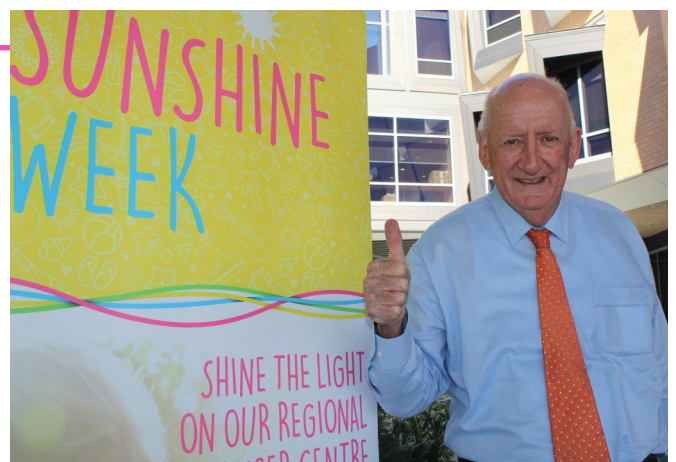

Mr Fischer was a passionate supporter of the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund, having battled cancer over a number of years.

As an advocate for our 2018 Sunshine Week, Mr Fischer described the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre as the "jewel" of the Border health care network.

"In a very short time, the cancer centre established itself as a hub of excellence for the region, with patients travelling from Mansfield and Mt Beauty in the south, Wagga and Tarcutta in the north, even Deniliquin in the west," he said.

"The professionalism and compassion shown by specialists, staff of all levels and also the many volunteers make it a place of modern discerning practice, and one we all should be very proud of."

Shortly before his death, Mr Fischer organised with Lachlan Valley Railway, an historic train trip from Albury to Boree Creek. The event was a sell out and raised an incredible $8000 for the Trust Fund.

Following his passing, Mr Fischer's wife, Judy Brewer, and sons Harrison and Dominic, requested donations be made to the Trust in lieu of flowers.

About $24,000 in donations flowed in from all over the country.

Further to this, Mr Fischer also left a $40,000 bequest to the Trust in his will, taking total contributions made in his name to $72,000.

KEY PROJECTS

NEW EQUIPMENT

The Trust Fund was proud to make its largest ever investment in new equipment this financial year.

A grant of $337,000 was provided to Albury Wodonga Health to purchase a surgical microscope and other equipment to perform reconstructive surgery at Albury Hospital.

The purchase was expected to save at least 38 breast cancer patients a year from having to travel to Melbourne for reconstructive surgery following a mastectomy. It was also expected to pave the way for reconstructive surgery to head and neck cancer patients in the future.

In announcing the grant, Trust Fund board member Di Thomas said it was a major achievement to enable more patients in the region to have surgery close to their home and support networks.

“Some patients from our region are travelling to Melbourne to have a mastectomy knowing that they will be having reconstructive surgery while they are there. But this new equipment gives them the opportunity to have it all done here on the Border with the support of their loved ones,” she said.

The reconstructive equipment also helped Albury Wodonga Health secure the services of plastic and reconstructive surgeon, Dr Queenie Chan.

The Trust also provided almost $2000 for 100 new thermometers for chemotherapy patients who were not able to access them during COVID-19.

WELLNESS CENTRE

The Wellness Centre continued to expand its programs and services with ongoing support of the Trust Fund.

This financial year, the Trust invested $288,000 in Wellness Centre programs and services.

This included $25,000 for a new outreach clinical psychology service for cancer patients and carers at Northeast Health Wangaratta. The existing counselling service, offered two days a week from the Wellness Centre, was operating at capacity.

The number of cancer support groups increased with the introduction of a Head and Neck Cancer Support Group and the revamped “Men Against Cancer” group.

There were also plans to engage the services of an exercise physiologist to launch a new exercise program at the Wellness Centre prior to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Coronavirus forced the closure of the Wellness Centre in March, but many of its services continued to be offered online, over the phone or through telehealth calls.

The Can.Ex exercise program launched online in April, while the Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction program previously held at the centre also moved to a new virtual format.

Demand for psycho-oncology services surged by almost 40 per cent, with 542 counselling sessions provided to 164 patients throughout the year.

Brave Hearts on the Murray continued to operate the wig library, offering individual appointments only.

At the end of the financial year, the Wellness Centre was planning to introduce vouchers for patients to access community-based therapy services while the Wellness Centre was closed.

KEY PROJECTS

RESEARCH

The Trust Fund made a significant investment in research at the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre again this financial year.

Almost $100,000 was used to fund a clinical trials nurse to work in the Border Medical Oncology Research Unit for four days a week.

This ensured the unit was able to continue recruiting regional and rural patients to participate in locally-run clinical trials.

In the 2019-2020 financial year, the research unit opened up 26 new clinical trials, with 252 patients consenting to participate in local research.

This included 11 patients recruited to a Victorian-first scheme linking regional patients to clinical trials in Melbourne through video conferencing technology.

This first clinical teletrial sought new strategies to prevent cancer patients from developing life-threatening blood clots, and was expected to help shape the future of cancer treatment worldwide.

Business Manager, Fiona Tuthill, said the unit was committed to the development of teletrials as a way of giving more patients in the region access to participate in research.

In March, the Trust Fund also provided $7000 to assist the unit make a multi-million dollar grant application to the Australian Government's Medical Research Future Fund.

The unit was successful in securing a $18.6 million grant over five years to help improve access to clinical trials for rural and regional cancer patients. It would focus on areas including geriatric oncology, palliative care and immunotherapy.

STAFF TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

The Trust Fund this year made a $300,000 commitment over three years to staff education and training at the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre.

The program offering professional development, training and scholarship opportunities was not only available to staff working within the centre, but also those caring for patients in outlying communities.

Trust Fund board member, Bryan Blake, said the program was vital to help attract staff to the region, and keep them abreast of the latest cancer treatments.

Following the launch in September, training sessions were provided in radiotherapy and skin management, immunotherapy and management of toxicities, concurrent chemotherapy and radiotherapy, and cultural safety and responsiveness. Further professional development and training opportunities were postponed or cancelled as a result of COVID-19.

An education committee formed to oversee the program was developing online education and training alternatives during the pandemic in 2020 and onwards.

The Trust Fund also continued to invest in its nurse scholarship program, which offers staff the opportunity to apply for up to $10,000 per year to complete post graduate degrees in oncology.

Almost $21,000 was committed to see last year's successful applicants Nicole Webb (Master of Cancer Science) and Tamara Quigley (Masters in Nursing Practice) continue their studies.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund Inc

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund Inc (the Trust Fund), which comprises the balance sheet as at 30 June 2020, the income and expenditure statement and a summary of significant accounting policies, and the statement by the Members of the Board of Management.

In our opinion, except for the effects, if any, on the financial statements of the matter referred to in the qualification paragraph, the accompanying financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust Fund as at 30 June 2020 and of its financial performance the year then ended in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1 to the financial report, the Associations Incorporation Act and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

It is not practicable for Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre Trust Fund Inc to establish internal controls over all sources of income raising activities prior to receipt of these funds by the organisation. Accordingly, it is not possible for our audit examination to include procedures that extend beyond the amounts of such income recorded in the accounting records of the Trust Fund.

Emphasis of Matter - Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the Trust Fund's financial reporting responsibilities under the Associations Incorporation Act and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Other Information

The Board of Management are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information contained in the Annual Report for the year ended 30 June 2020, but does not include the financial report and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Management for the Financial Report

The Board of Management are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report and has determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the financial reporting responsibilities under the Associations Incorporation Act and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, management is responsible for assessing the Trust Fund's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intend to liquidate the Trust Fund or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Management are responsible for overseeing the Trust Fund's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Managements' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Trust Fund's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Trust Fund to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
